Dear Jeanine

How are you today? You sure sounded surprised when I called you on the phone. It was good to at least hear your voice again. I must say your voice hasn't changed any since the last time I talked to you which was over three months ago. The reason I called thursday was I had to go down town to place a phone call for the air force to barbados, so I thought while I was ?? I might just as well call and see if you still missed me. As you found out I didn't have anything in particular to say. I'll going ti try and call again christmas but will need to know when you will be home. You know it is hard to believe christmas is only a couple of weeks off. The yare playing christmas music in trinidad, but because of the warm weather I still can't get in the mood. I guess what I need is to be with you in ??? to get in the christmas spirit.

Talking about Christmas I still haven't gotten you anything. Actually I don't know what to get. The base exchange has a very poor selection of things so I don't know what to do. Maybe Monday I'll be able to take off of work early and do some shopping. I sent your mother and Dad some wooden plates a couple of weeks ago. Its a bad time of the year for such things, however I thought they would be useful next summer for eating outside.

Well sweetheart not much has happened in dear old Trinidad. I haven't even been swimming for over three weeks. It sure felt good to talk to you again. I only wish I could do it more often. I'd better run for now but will write again tomorrow.

All my love
Larry
